

Name: _____

The Princess and the Pea

Read this part of the story. Think about dialogue you could use in this scene.

The next morning the Queen asked the girl how she had slept.

“Very badly,” said the Princess. “I didn’t sleep a wink all night.”

When the Queen asked why this was, the girl explained that there was a hard lump in the bed.

“I am black and blue all over,” she said.

Now the Queen knew she must be a real princess because only a princess could be that delicate.

She rushed to tell the King. Then the King told the Prince. And on hearing the good news, the Prince asked the Princess to marry him.

And so the Prince and Princess were married and they all lived happily ever after.

Artwork based on original illustrations by Deborah Allwright for Don't Read This Book! published by Egmont

